COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The laying of the 4 inch water pipe at West Bethel is now in progress. Most of the material has been delivered. The main item that has not been delivered is the 2,000 gallon underground tank. At the time of the order delivery was promised in three weeks. The three weeks have passed with no word as yet.

Unusual cold and stormy weather has not yet hampered the project. Continued cold could give trouble if the ground freezes too deep before the project is completed.

Some plowing and sanding were required as the result of the light snow fall on Saturday.

The closing date of the town books comes on Dec. 31st, the same date as last year. Those that have not already paid their 1959 taxes are urgently requested to do so. The following items must be paid on or before the closing date which indicates a good reason for prompt payment of taxes: Temporary loan, $75,000.00; County tax, $7,695.00; tuition to Gould Academy, $22,577.06; School Building note, $5,000.00; plus three school payrolls; the weekly highway payrolls and bills of routine nature.

Lt. McCabe of the Maine State Police visited the Town Office last week making a routine check of property that the town has acquired from Civil Defense. The purpose of the check was to see if the equipment was being properly used and could be accounted for.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

P. T. A. FROLICS NIGHT THIS SATURDAY

The P. T. A. wants to remind one and all that Saturday night, Nov. 28, is the night of the Frolics dance and stage show at the Wm. Bingham gym from 8 p. m. until midnight. In addition to an evening of dancing to Clayton Bane's orchestra there will be hilarious entertainment on the stage.

The Balladeers, a truly outstanding male quartet comprised of Philip Bolen, first tenor, of Locke Mills, Stanley Andrews, second tenor, and Gilman Whitman, bass, both of Bryant Pond and Clinton Jenkins, of Bethel, baritone, will fill the gym with several harmonious renditions. Five magnificent males will do the Car-Can, expertly too, and eight beautiful and sensuous arias, you know them all, will perform the Minuet in G, the Roaring Twenties and the Charleston. The Fabulous Fashions of the Sea will be artfully displayed in duet and Kollie Gline will really rattle his bones. So come one, come all, for a great evening of entertainment and dancing and support a worthy cause.

ANDOVER RECEIVES AWARD FOR EXCELLENT REPORT

Arthur Whitten, chairman of the Andover Board of Selectmen, has received a letter from Frank Chapman, Executive Secretary of the Maine Municipal Association, with the following content: "Maine Municipal Association congratulates a Municipal Report Competition. Awards are given in recognition of outstanding municipal town reports. Many elements are considered in making the award but the most important is a clear and concise presentation of municipal activities to the public. Town of Andover has been given the Award of Excellence in its population class by the Competition Judges." Enclosed with the letter was an award with the seal of the Maine Municipal Association.

Jerry Freeman Suffers Knee Wound, Hunting

Gerald (Jerry) Freeman, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman of Bethel, is a surgical patient at the Norway hospital. He was shot in the knee Saturday morning by Guy Parker, Jr., while hunting near Middle Intervale. Carried a half mile by Mr. Parker and Richard Bean, he was taken by car to Dr. Young's office and then by ambulance to the hospital.

The accident occurred while the three were seeking a deer, reportedly wounded by Freeman who apparently circled to a point unsuspected by Parker. The accident victim is a senior at Gould Academy.

Pleading guilty to the charge of negligent shooting before Judge Neil L. Dow in Norway municipal court Monday, Mr. Parker was sentenced to pay $500 fine and serve three months in jail. The jail sentence was suspended and he was placed on 11 months probation, conditioned on payment of all medical and hospital bills.

AKERS - CUSHING

A very pretty home wedding was performed on Nov. 21 at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Cushing in Andover when their only daughter, Jean Bryant, became the bride of Melvin Earle Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Akers of Andover. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John Johnston of Mexico under a fir bough archway. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Janice Doyen, Andover schoolmate of the bride, was her attendant, wearing a blue organza ballerina length gown with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Charles Akers of Andover, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride wore a satin ballerina length gown with a lace overdress, the neckline was scalloped, the sleeves long and pointed. She wore a shoulder-length veil falling from a head-dress of matching dress material. The bride's bouquet was pink sweetheart roses with a corsage of the same in the center.

The bride's mother wore a green wool dress. The groom's mother wore a green wool plaid. Both mothers had corsages of pink sweetheart roses. Miss Raylene Learned, Andover, dipped punch; Miss Aylin Perkins, Andover, circulated the guest book and Miss Sharon Fitzherbert, Andover, had charge of the gift table.

The bride graduated from Andover High School in the class of 1959. She had served as class president her senior year, participated in the speech speaking, was a member of the year book staff and a member of the National Honor Society. She attended the Andover Congregational Church where she had taught a Sunday School class and sang in the choir.

Mr. Akers graduated from Andover high school in the class of 1954. He served as class secretary and was active in sports. He graduated from Vocational Technical Institute in Portland in 1956 and then went to the Lynn, Mass., General Electric Co. as an apprentice graduating in 1959.

The bride's going away outfit was a tweed coat with blue accessories. She wore the corsage from the center of her bouquet. After a week's wedding trip to New York and Washington, D. C., they will reside in West Peabody, Mass.

FRED I. CLARK

Fred I. Clark, formerly of Bethel, died Sunday in Melrose, Mass., where he had lived since 1954.

Mr. Clark was born in Lynn, Mass., Nov. 14, 1884, the son of Ira A. and Anthacis Hiller Clark. Nearly all of his life was spent in Bethel, where he was a carpenter and builder for many years. He was a member of the Bethel Methodist Church.

He married Miss Mary Ella Kendall whose death occurred Jan. 29, 1950. Later selling his home at the corner of Summer and Elm Streets he went to Melrose, where for several years he has lived in a nursing home.

Surviving are a son, Albert F. Clark, of Melrose, three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Greenleaf funeral home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Clifford Laws officiating. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

MOTORISTS URGED TO BE EXTRA CAREFUL DURING THIS WEEKEND

Governor Clinton A. Clauson and State Police Chief, Col. Robert Marx, have issued a joint statement urging all drivers and pedestrians to keep in mind the traffic dangers which accompany the long holiday week end and to incorporate extra care into their driving and walking.

"Traffic safety habits are not something which should be practiced only at special times," said Governor Clauson. "Correct driving and walking in traffic should be thoroughly ingrained in us and should be a definite part of our daily lives. However, a long holiday week end serves to accentuate the dangers of modern traffic and to emphasize the absolute necessity for conformity with the rules."

The Governor pointed out that extra hazards confront drivers and walkers at this time of year, including reduced visibility and roads which can become slippery and treacherous for both motorists and walkers upon very short notice.

"Many people will be driving back home for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner. I urge them to plan their trips well, allowing plenty of time, both going and returning. Let's make this truly a period of thanksgiving for our many blessings and for the traffic accidents which did not happen."

Col. Marx, pledging a maximum effort by the State Police, joined the Governor in asking for strict compliance with the law and for additional caution:

"We shall make every effort to prevent accidents," he said. "Every possible man will be detailed to traffic patrol throughout this weekend period. However, your traffic conduct will be the deciding factor. Sober, conscientious driving and extreme caution walking in traffic are absolutely necessary, if we are to avoid traffic death and injury. Please give us your cooperation."

Highway Night Patrol Starting Sixth Season

The State Highway Commission announces that its night patrol has begun its sixth season keeping a close watch on the condition of 1,700 miles of the state's most-traveled highways.

The SHC's night patrol will be on the job every night throughout the winter months ready to call out plowing and sanding crews if needed. Patrolmen also carry enough sand in their trucks to cover short icy sections in dangerous locations.

At least once each hour during the night, patrols contact their division offices by radio reporting weather and road conditions. The division offices, in turn, radio this information to the SHC's headquarters office in Augusta every two hours. Every day at 6:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. a state-wide report is made available by the Augusta office to the Presque Isle, Ellsworth, Bangor, Portland and Rumford division offices.

All of this information, late reports on road conditions as well as the state-wide report, is available to news services and the general public at the above listed offices at any time of day or night.

Rumford Division Office, 36 Exchange Street — telephone 1670. Office opened twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. Late state-wide reports available after 6:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. every day of the week. Reports available on roads that are patrolled in this division at any time, day or night.

SNOW COMES AND GOES

Snow on Tuesday night and Saturday of last week brought the first treacherous travel conditions of the winter season. Continued cool weather held the snow until rainy days the first of the week cut it down. Steady rainfall Tuesday and Wednesday have carried away the several inches of snow that fell in this vicinity excepting the remains of the snow men.

Thanksgiving Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown will be Mr. and Mrs. George Bryant and son of Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Filmore Clough and daughter of Hazardville, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rice and family, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Clough.

FOOD CHAIN STOCKS

Food chain stocks have been one of the poorest acting groups in the market this year with the majority showing substantial losses. While this has been the case, there is nothing on the horizon to cause undue pessimism and it appears that the selling in these issues has been overdone. We recommend this industry as offering above average value in today's market and believe selected issues should be bought. Among those that appear attractive are: Food Fair (both the common and the convertible debentures), National Tea and Winn-Dixie.

Last year the food chain stocks were excellent market performers and by the year-end, most were making new highs. It is this fact, probably more than any other that has caused this year's poorer than average market performance. By the end of 1958, many of these issues had on run their near term market objectives and based on historical price earnings and yield relationships, stocks in the group looked high. Therefore, in 1959 investors had the alternative of holding these issues, where market action at best would probably only equal the overall market, or take profits. The latter proved to be the line of least resistance, and most food chain stocks fell 25% in value from the price at the beginning of the year.

Nineteen fifty-nine results for the industry as a whole will be at record levels even though the steel strike curtailed sales in certain key areas. These lost sales are lost for good. They are not deferred sales, such as the appliance industry might encounter by the strike. However, barring a few isolated cases, sales and earnings will be at a record. Next year, with a favorable economic climate expected, sales and earnings for the leading chains should be at another record for the first half and, while it is too early to predict, last half operations should also make excellent reading.

Looking further to the future, population increase alone should add 20% to food sales in the next ten years or 2% annually. On top of this, rapidly increasing standards of living will notably swell the dollar-volume going into consumer food purchases. One estimate is as much as a 40% increase from this source alone. Finally, only 37% of all retail food sales were handled by chains (11 stores or more last year), a percentage which will probably be increased significantly.

"I was fighting mad..."

Too often the innocent may suffer

when temper's at the wheel! When another driver gets your dander up—or you smoulder over some grievance back home—cool off! Losing your head can cost you control of your car and make an innocent party a victim of your spite. Last year traffic accidents brought death to 37,000 people, painful injuries to hundreds of thousands more. Too many were innocent victims of good drivers who momentarily let emotion blindfold judgment. When all your mind's on driving, you'll be a safer driver.

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

An upstairs telephone shortens your steps lengthens your life

When you're upstairs with your housework, running downstairs to the phone can be tiresome and annoying. An upstairs telephone certainly can save you time and bother. In fact, extra telephones throughout the house are such blessings. Do you have them?

The Busy Beavers and The Bethel Bluebirds held a joint meeting Nov. 23, at the home of Barbara Houshass. Leaders present were Helen Miller and Beatrice Pelt. There were nine members of the Busy Beavers and ten members of the Bethel Bluebirds present. We omitted the business meeting and decorated Thanksgiving Baskets for children for our Community Project. We also helped pack different foods in the basket. We had two visitors. Refreshments of popcorn and apples were served. Carolyn Roberts, Club Reporter.

The Busy Beaver 4-H Club held their meeting on Monday, Nov. 16, at the home of their assistant leader, Mrs. Robert Keniston. A committee was appointed for our Community Project. Victoria Robert and Harriet Miller next week will be a judging contest. Our leader told us that we will start our own two weeks next week refreshments will be served by Vicki Robertson and Martha Lowe. After our business we worked on our place mats and quilts.

The Locke Thirteen 4-H Club with Alice Brown as leader, met at Harold MacKay's on Nov. 24. The meeting was called to order by President Julia Brown. We decided to have our year book. We were going to use everyday's idea for a Christmas decoration. We collected 40 in our treasury to day. Refreshments were served by Betty Hastings. The service was given and prayer. Patricia Moore, Club Reporter.

The Gypsy and Mae Club met at Mrs. Barbara Brown. They had an invitation from the Bethel Bluebirds 4-H Club for a Christmas Party. We then drew names. The boys went out to the shop and worked on their own projects. The girls made Christmas cards and the let the girls started learning about the sewing machine and prepared sewing. The club members brought something for their Christmas baskets for their community project. Refreshments were served by Jack Hutchins.

Harold MacKay's 4-H Club met on Monday, Nov. 23. Meeting was opened by club leader and church organist, Edith Anderson. We studied the sewing machine. Each one of us made a place mat. We had a very good time and very much enjoyed the meeting.

CHRISTMAS TREE LAW NOW EFFECTIVE
Maine's new Christmas Tree Law passed by the last Legislature is now in effect, says Lewis P. Bissell, Maine Extension Service forestry specialist. The law should make for better market conditions and should cut down on the stealing of trees and boughs. The law requires commercial operators who transport Christmas trees or boughs in Maine to register. Also, persons cutting trees on the land of another must obtain written permission. Finally, those in the Christmas tree business are asked to make a voluntary report each year on the harvest and sale of trees.

NEW BOOKS AT THE

BETHEL LIBRARY

Adults:

"Barbara Greer," by Stephen Birmingham.

"The Lion," by Joseph Kessel. "The Lion" is a great and powerful adventure story that will enchant you by its vivid picture of animal life in a vast game preserve.

"It's Good to be Alive," by Roy Campanella. This story is a story of human achievement and courage which will remind its many thousands of readers that "It's good to be alive."

"Guilty's Child," by Alice Hobart. This is the warm moving story of a exciting life.

"With this Ring," by Emilie Loring. Beautiful, dark-haired Cynthia Farley could never forget the shrill scream that had shattered the hush of her wedding rehearsal and sent her screaming out of the church.

"The High Roof," by Joy Packer. This is a novel of intimate human relationships, set in the beautiful South African Cape Peninsula with its many social and racial distinctions.

"The Hunt," by Richard Erno. This is the gripping story of a deer hunt in the north woods of Michigan, with a man's psychological struggle.

"The Man With Two Shadows," by Robin Maughan. This is a psychological study with a lively tale of adventure, love and intrigue.

Young People:

"Witch's Silver," by Dorothy Butters. A danger-ridden trip through Maine wilderness in 1703.

"The Mill Creek Irregulars," by August Derleth. A merry, dramatic, colorful mystery story of rural Wisconsin in 1922.

Children:

We now have a child's encyclopedia from the 3rd 7th grades. This is highly illustrated and we are sure the children will love them. These may be taken out.

Also: "Lost Bear" for tiny tots. "Kid Lik's Kavak," for juniors. "Jets and Rockets," for juniors.

UPTON

Mrs. C. A. Judkins, Cor.

The book containing the assessor records beginning with the incorporation of the Town of Upton in 1860 has been given to the Maine Historical Society in Portland. Prior to 1860 Upton was known as Letter B.

These records were found in 1944 in an "abandoned house," having served for a time as a child's crayon book. While the condition did not permit re-binding, the book will be kept in an envelope in the vault of the Society, where it will be safe from fire and further attack.

The Historical Society has a large collection of town histories and early records and facilities for genealogical research for those interested in family records. It is located on Congress Street in back of the Longfellow home.

Deer killed since Nov. 11 and tagged in Upton are: Nov. 11, Robert Hill, Hollis, doe; 11, Arthur Lamb, Harrison, buck; 11, David Lowell, Bethel, doe; 12, George E. Carrington, Lee, Mass., doe; 12, Winalow Grafham, Oxford, buck; 13, Robert Barlow, Lee, Mass., buck; 13, Joseph Crosby, South Hampton, N. H., buck; 13, Donald Roberts, Haverhill, Mass., buck; 14, Clyde Cross, Sebago Lake, buck; 14, Malcolm Griffin, Portland, buck; 14, Franklyn Withers, Lee, Mass., doe; 14, Robert Carty, Lee, Mass., buck; 18, George Curtis, Manchester, Conn., buck; 19, Elsie Fuller, Upton, buck; 20, Omer Richard, Mexico, buck; 20, George S. Ott, Sherborn, Mass., doe; 20, Marjorie Grover, Westbrook, buck; 21, Perry Edwards, Casco, doe; 23, David Thurston, Exeter, N. H., buck. This brings the total to 41 deer tagged in Upton this year so far.

At a Ladies' Aid meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jennie Judkins on Tuesday, Nov. 10th, the quilt was drawn. Holder of the lucky ticket was Fred Williams of Amesbury, Mass.

Roland Bernier is moving his family to East Stoneham this week end.

There was a meeting of the school committee and Supt. Christie Monday evening at the school house.

Larry Enman, who is on leave from his duties in the Air Force for 30 days, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Katharine Wight, and family, in Errol, N. H. He visited in town one day last week.

It was learned here Monday evening of the death of Mrs. Ruth Coolidge in California. She was a former resident of this town. She will be buried here Friday afternoon.

Children will love them. These may be taken out.

Also: "Lost Bear" for tiny tots. "Kid Lik's Kavak," for juniors. "Jets and Rockets," for juniors.

IT HASN'T A NAME

Mrs. R. M. Fleet

There were three men that have logged most of the summer in Ketchum most successfully when the elements were in their favor.

The one day they started on a new strip which was not of the flat or allightly tipped territory. It went up and very steep at that. First they swamped one road which they couldn't use then another and another. Finally they took an old road used by another woodsman for over a year. This they remade a bit by the help of the other fellow and his horse and some blasting powder.

Finally they had just got to where they were getting the truck and tools up there when along came a cool morning it had the usual effect on all the machinery. Nothing would start and the use of all the puffing and blowing on the part of the foreman didn't help. He even tried talking in woodsman language but a trip to town for winter oil and old mother nature started things.

Things went slow as the road became more slippery every trip until finally one nice rainy Friday morning word came over the phone wait until tomorrow morning it's too wet.

Well the rains came down and so did the road and bridge. But on the peak was the machinery high but far from dry. So after the water lowered in the brooks and river, by wading the machinery was taken down and the three men took to different jobs for awhile. One went hunting with friends to forget his troubles, another stayed home with his wife, dog and game, while the third helped repair roads and is at North Pond now.

But with all their troubles and few laughs each and all agree to one thing that small peak should have a name all its own. They have chosen "Caribou Peak" when talking about it as that seems to be the only real thing that can travel it and not be interfered with in any way.

HUNTERS WARNED TO BE SURE OF TARGET AS DEER SEASON CLOSES

With just a few days left in the 1959 deer hunting season, hunters were cautioned today about being over-eager to get their deer. Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner George W. Bucknam said, "No deer is worth taking a chance of injuring or killing another hunter. You can't afford any doubt about your target."

Chief Warden Elmer H. Ingraham added this to Bucknam's warning: "As usual, this year's hunting accidents, with only a few exceptions, can be blamed on two main causes—mistaking another hunter for game, and handling firearms carelessly."

Thanksgiving Day each year is a big day for hunters, with plenty of them in the field. It's a day for extra care, especially if visibility is bad.

The 1959 total of accidents can still turn out to be smaller than 1958's if hunters will co-operate. Thinking clearly while hunting or carrying firearms should go far toward this goal. Last year, there were 41 accidents, including nine fatalities.
